SEXUAL BATTERIES NORTH OPERATIONS DIVISION

The Sexual Crimes Bureau has been investigating seven home invasions/sexual batteries in the northern Miami-Dade County area since December 25, 2002, of which five are linked by DNA. Additionally, a home invasion was reported on June 17, 2003, with similarities. In each of these incidents, the subject concealed his identity from the victims. In one of the cases, the subject took the handsets of two telephones to prevent the victim from calling the police.
